HASTINGS LAKE BIBLE CAMP

Rental Refusal Policy

PURPOSE

HLLBC exists for the promotion of the Christian faith, therefore this policy exists to ensure that those entering into a rental agreement with the camp are conducting activities that do not conflict with the christian faith.

POLICY

The actions and activities of those entering into a rental agreement with HLLBC shall do so with the intent of using the facilities in a manner that does not directly or indirectly oppose and/or contravene HLLBC's ends referred to in the Ends Statement (G001).

PROCEDURES

- Upon review of the Rental Form Description of Activities, as well as past experience of the renters' activities, the Executive Director will determine if the renters are intending to conduct activities that do not contradict or conflict with the Ends Statement.
- When the Executive Director determines that a renter is intending to perform activities on camp property that contradict the christian faith, refusal of the rental will be communicated.
- When refusal of rental has been issued, the Executive Director will inform the Board of Directors Executive Committee (Board Chair and Vice Chair).

ENDS STATEMENTS

PURPOSE

To ensure clarity and consistency in its purpose and priorities, (i.e. the “ends”), Hastings Lake Lutheran Bible Camp, HLLBC, has described the key areas in which it desires to see results. This policy ensures that these ends are understood and upheld by the Board of Directors and employees of HLLBC.

POLICY

All members of the Board of Directors and employees of HLLBC acknowledge and understand that HLLBC is a Christian ministry and operates based on statements of Beliefs, Mission, Vision, Values, and Core Commitments. Members of the Board of Directors and employees agree to uphold these statements, unless specified otherwise in their employment agreement. In the event that an employee is not required to uphold these statements, they agree not to directly or indirectly oppose and/or contravene these statements as they fulfill the duties and requirements of their employment. Further, without limiting the scope of the above statement by the following list, members of the Board of Directors and employees acknowledge and understand that HLLBC has defined its ends using its statements of Beliefs, Mission, Vision, Values, and Core Commitments.
